FLOWERS are given in celebration of Bob Cahill's birthday.

HOLY COMMUNION is celebrated today. As a congregation of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, we follow the historic Christian practice of closed communion. According to the words of St. Paul in 1 Corinthians 11, only those who share the same outward confession of faith join us at the altar. Members of other LC-MS congregations are welcome, but we ask that you please see the pastor before communing.

WALK-A-THON The 5th annual Walk-a-Thon is Sunday, May 21. The goal is to raise $20,000 to help pay for the fencing along Honey Creek to keep our children safe and prevent balls from going into the creek. See the forms in the church narthex to either sign up to walk or make a pledge. There is also an online giving option on our website, www.ofls.org, to donate.

THE LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE will collect mite boxes on April 30, the last Sunday of the month. Mite boxes can be left at any time in the mite box in the narthex.

DINNER WITH PASTOR There are some openings available for inviting Pastor Nuckols to dinner at your home on Thursdays before church. There is a sheet in the narthex if you wish to sign up.

INTROIT

(Psalm 33:1, 18-20; antiphon: vv. 5b, 6a, chant responsively)

The earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord. Alle- | luia.*

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made. Alle- | luia.

Shout for joy in the Lord, O you | righteous!*

Praise befits the | upright.

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who | fear him,*

on those who hope in his | steadfast love,

that he may deliver their | soul from death*

and keep them alive in | famine.

Our soul waits | for the Lord;*

he is our help | and our shield.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

The earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord. Alle- | luia.*

By the word of the Lord the heavens were made. Alle- | luia.

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING

Ezekiel 34:11-16 (ESV)

¹¹ "For thus says the Lord God: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out.

¹² As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness.

¹³ And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

¹⁵ I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I myself will make them lie down, declares the Lord God.

¹⁶ I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them in justice.

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE EPISTLE READING

1 Peter 2:21-25 (ESV)

²¹ For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps.

²² He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth.

²³ When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly.

²⁴ He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.

²⁵ For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 10:11-16 (ESV)

¹¹ I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

¹² He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them.

¹³ He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

¹⁴ I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me,

¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

¹⁶ And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE CONGREGATION AT PRAYER FOR THE WEEK OF MISERICORDIAS DOMINI

“I Know My Own and My Own Know Me”

April 23 through April 29, 2023

Misericordias Domini literally describes the “compassionate heart of the Lord” or, as the Introit translates it, “the goodness of the Lord.” The Psalmist is not wanting us to look at Creation and confess its goodness, but rather to marvel at the true goodness of the Lord, that is, His compassion and mercy which fill the earth when Christ is preached to the nations of the earth. It is Christ who is the Good Shepherd because in His unlimited love for us He laid down His life. The Shepherd makes Himself known to us in the preaching of the Gospel, that is, the good news that He has died and risen again to rescue us from death. His sheep listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd when the Gospel is preached because He first opened their ears to hear in the waters of Holy Baptism. Here is the definition of the Church which Luther says every seven-year-old should know: those who hear the voice of the Good Shepherd and follow Him. To hear that voice is to come to hear the Gospel preached every Sunday, receive the Sacrament often, and delight in the absolution. This is the way of those who follow the voice of the Shepherd.

INVOCATION: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

THE CREED

VERSE: ²⁵ I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. John 11:25-26 (ESV)

COLLECT FOR THE WEEK: O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN.

PSALM OF THE WEEK: 119:57-64

PSALMODY PRAYER: Teach me Your statutes, O Lord, for there is no one else but You who is faithful and merciful. Guide my feet that I walk in the way of Your commandments and am freed from the bonds of the wicked. AMEN.

CATECHISM FOR THE WEEK: Table of Duties

To Wives

Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord. Ephesians 5:22

They were submissive to their own husbands, like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear. 1 Peter 3:5-6

Luther, On Psalm 23:1 (1535): A sheep must live entirely by its shepherd’s help, protection, and care. As soon as it loses him, it is surrounded by all kinds of dangers and must perish, for it is quite unable to help itself. The reason? It is a poor, weak, simple little beast that can neither feed nor rule itself, nor find the right way, nor protect itself against any kind of danger or misfortune. Moreover, it is by nature timid, shy, and likely to go astray. When it does go a bit astray and leaves its shepherd, it is unable to find its way back to him; indeed, it merely runs farther away from him. . . . Still, however weak and small an animal a sheep may be, it nevertheless has this trait about it: it is very careful to stay near its shepherd, take comfort in his help and protection, and follow him however and wherever he may lead it. And if it can only so much as be near him, it worries about nothing, fears no one, and is secure and happy, for it lacks absolutely nothing. It also has this virtue—and this is to be marked well, because Christ praises it especially in His sheep (John 10:4)—that it very carefully and surely hears and knows its shepherd’s voice, is guided by it, does not let itself be turned away from it, but follows it without swerving. . . . Just so it is in spiritual shepherding, that is, in Christendom. As little as a natural sheep can feed, direct, guide itself, or guard and protect itself against danger and misfortune—for it is a weak and quite defenseless little animal—just so little can we poor, weak, miserable people feed and guide ourselves spiritually, walk and remain on the right path, or by our own power protect ourselves against all evil and gain help and comfort for ourselves in anxiety and distress. . . . Let us, therefore, conclude freely: as little as a natural sheep can help itself in even the slightest degree but must simply depend on its shepherd for all benefits, just so little—and much less—can a man govern himself and find comfort, help, and counsel in himself in the things that pertain to his salvation. He must depend on God, his Shepherd, for all of that. And God is a thousand times more willing and ready to do everything that is to be done for His sheep than is any faithful human shepherd. (LW 25:311-312, St. Louis: Concordia, 1955)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

LUTHER'S MORNING PRAYER: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me that the Evil Foe may have no power over me. AMEN.

OR

LUTHER'S EVENING PRAYER: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the Evil Foe may have no power over me. AMEN.

READINGS

Isaiah 40:25-31

1 Peter 2:11-20

John 16:16-22

Easter causes us to consider the way in which joy and sorrow are present in the Christian life. Some in the church want us to focus on the resurrection as a source of power for this life and successful Christian living. Some wonder why we are not always smiling. Paul calls us to a theology of the cross and suffering. Where did he get this idea? Paul gets all of his theology from Jesus, as we see in this text of John. Jesus speaks of His own death and resurrection and then links it to the life of faith. Even as there was sorrow at Christ's death, so the life of death and the cross haunts us in this world for this is the valley of the shadow of death. We are like a mother who carries her child for forty weeks awaiting the delivery. Christ lives in us as the baptized children of God. We are the Bride of Christ, yet we are not fully revealed as God's children. Only at death, the sorrow and anguish that far surpasses childbirth, do we finally reach the full joy of the resurrection. It is the hope of the resurrection which gives us joy in the midst of all our earthly struggles and weaknesses. Here we know the deep sorrow of our sinful existence, yet we will soon know the eternal joy that has been prepared for us in Christ. Peter's words remind us that living by faith in our daily vocations may well bring wrongful suffering in this life, but we are to bear it patiently. As Isaiah says, our strength will be renewed when we wait on the Lord in faith.
