According to the words of St. Paul in 1 Corinthians 11, only those who share the same outward confession of faith join us at the altar. Members of other LC-MS congregations are welcome, but we ask that you please see the pastor before communing.

VOTERS' ASSEMBLY MEETING will be held in the church today, May 22, after the second service. We strongly encourage members to attend. In addition to regular business, updates on revisions to the Constitution and Bylaws will be presented; there will be a vote on the candidates for pastor; there will be a vote on calling a new 1st & 2nd grade teacher; and there may be a vote to call a new principal. Please plan on attending to have a voice in the future of your church and school.

ASCENSION DAY will be celebrated jointly with Mt. Zion Lutheran Church on Thursday, May 26 at 6:30 p.m. at Our Father's. Come and rejoice in the fact that Christ's ascension paves the way for our own ascension into heaven.

SUMMER SCHEDULE Beginning next Sunday, May 29, the late service will move to 10:00 a.m. until the Sunday after Labor Day.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND ADULT BIBLE CLASS Today is the last day of Sunday School and Adult Bible Class until next fall. We give thanks for the faithful teachers who give of their time to teach our children the faith.

THE READINGS AND PSALMODY FOR THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
ROGATE
May 22, 2022

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING

Numbers 21:4-9 (ESV)

⁴ From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the people became impatient on the way.

⁵ And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food."

⁶ Then the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

⁷ And the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord and against you. Pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

⁸ And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole, and everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live."

⁹ So Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on a pole. And if a serpent bit anyone, he would look at the bronze serpent and live.

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE EPISTLE READING

1 Timothy 2:1-6 (ESV)

¹ First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people,

² for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way.

³ This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior,

⁴ who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

⁵ For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

⁶ who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time.

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 16:23-33 (ESV)

²³ In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.

²⁴ Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

²⁵ "I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father.

²⁶ In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf;

²⁷ for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

²⁸ I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples said, "Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech!

³⁰ Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God."

³¹ Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?"

³² Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me.

³³ I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

THE PSALMODY

Psalm 107:1-9 (ESV)

¹ Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever!

² Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
whom he has redeemed from trouble

³ and gathered in from the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

⁴ Some wandered in desert wastes,
finding no way to a city to dwell in;

⁵ hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted within them.

⁶ Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.

⁷ He led them by a straight way till they reached a city to dwell in.

⁸ Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
for his wondrous works to the children of man!

⁹ For he satisfies the longing soul,
and the hungry soul he fills with good things.

THE CONGREGATION AT PRAYER FOR THE WEEK OF
THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
ROGATE

“Faith Asks and Receives”

May 22 through May 28, 2022

Rogate means ask. The name of the Sunday comes from the Gospel this week where Jesus teaches us to ask the Father in His name. In other words, He teaches us to pray as the baptized for we bear His name. In the water, He put His name upon you, claiming you as His own, making you sons of God with access to the Father. By His incarnation and crucifixion, our Lord Jesus broke through the barrier of sin which separated us from God, opening a portal to the Father. To pray in Jesus’ name is to pray with faith in Him as the one Mediator between God and men, who gave Himself as a ransom for all. Like Moses in the wilderness, Jesus is our go-between and intercessor before the throne of heaven. He was lifted up for us on the cross that we might be saved and restored to fellowship with the Father. Looking into this perfect teaching of liberty, we pray with boldness and confidence as dear children of God.

INVOCATION: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

THE CREED

VERSE: ¹ See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. 1 John 3:1 (ESV)

COLLECT FOR THE WEEK: O God, the giver of all that is good, by Your holy inspiration grant that we may think those things that are right and by Your merciful guiding accomplish them; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN.

PSALM OF THE WEEK: 89:1-24

PSALMODY PRAYER: In Your faithfulness, Your mercy never fails us, O Lord. Keep us as Your sons firm in faith that we confess You as our Father and the Rock of our salvation. You have given us help in all our needs. AMEN.

CATECHISM FOR THE WEEK: The Ten Commandments

The First Commandment

You shall have no other gods.

What does this mean?

We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

The Second Commandment

You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God.

What does this mean?

We should fear and love God so that we do not curse, swear, use satanic arts, lie, or deceive by His name, but call upon it in every trouble, pray, praise, and give thanks.

Luther, On Romans 7:18 (1516): For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. See how he attributes to himself flesh which is a part of him as if he himself were flesh. Thus he has said above: “I am carnal.”; and therefore, he now confesses that he is not good but evil, because he does evil things. Because of his flesh, he is carnal and wicked, for there is no good in him, and he does evil; because of the spirit, he is spiritual and good, because he does good. Therefore, we must note that the words “I want” and “I hate” refer to the spiritual man or to the spirit, but “I do” and “I work” refer to the carnal man or to the flesh. But because the same one complete man consists of flesh and spirit, therefore, he attributes to the whole man both of these opposing qualities which come from the opposing parts of him. For in this way, there comes about a communication of attributes, for one and the same man is spiritual and carnal, righteous and a sinner, good and evil. Just as the one and the same person of Christ is both dead and alive, at the same time suffering and in a state of bliss, both working and at rest, etc., because of the communication of his attributes, although neither of the natures possesses the properties of the other but are absolutely different, as we all know. But this applies in no way to the carnal man, where the whole man is entirely flesh, because the Spirit of God has not remained in him. . . . the apostle can be better understood in the comparison he used earlier, namely, that a woman is free when her husband has died, but the application of the comparison seems inappropriate because he says rather that the soul itself, like the woman, is to die and is thus to be liberated, but the man, that is, the passions of sin, remain but are taken into captivity, etc. But the apostle who has the identity of the person in view sees the marriage union in each and every one, that the flesh is the woman and the soul or mind is the man. When they agree together in their desires, as Adam and Eve did, they are one flesh. But if the mind, the carnal man, dies a spiritual death, we are already dead to the Law in the whole person, and so also we are liberated in our whole person. . . . Therefore, he says: “Likewise you have died,” even though only according to the inner man have we died and been freed and loosed from the Law. But again this belongs to the whole man because of the inner man, and is communicated to the flesh, or the outer man. For the flesh itself no longer serves the Law or sins, but it is freed because of the fact that the inner man has been set free, with whom it makes up one man, whose wife it is and was. (LW 25:311-312)

HYMNS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: 534, 539, 713, 494, 491, 645, 493, 564

READINGS

Ezekiel 36:22-28

1 Peter 4:7-14

John 15:26-16:4

The Ascension is marked by Jesus instituting the Office of the Holy Ministry. Jesus takes eleven men whom He must rebuke for their unbelief and hardness of heart. They had not even believed the accounts of those who had seen the risen Lord. Yet it is these eleven that He chooses to preach the gospel to all creatures. Here we learn that it is not the men but the gospel itself that matters. The pastors of the church are still poor, miserable sinners who have been called to proclaim the comforting gospel of the forgiveness of sins to the nations of the earth. Those who believe this proclamation of the crucified and risen Christ and are baptized into that death and resurrection will be saved.
